he underſigned Miniſter Plenipotentiary cons it his duty to remark to the Secretary of e, that the neutral governments or the allies of Republic have nothing to fear as to the treat-t of their flag by the French, ſince, if keeping in the bounds of their neutrality, they cauſe ights of that neutrality to be reſpected by the Engliſh, the Republic will reſpect them. But o' weakneſs, partiality or other motives, they d ſuffer the Engliſh to ſport with that neutral nd turn it to their advantage, could they then lain, when, France, to reſtore the balance of ality to its equilibrium, ſhall act in the ſame er as the Engliſh? No, certainly; for the lity of a nation conſiſts in granting to belli-t powers the ſame advantages, and that neu-no longer exiſts when, in the courſe of the that neutral nation grants to one of the belli-powers, advantages not ſtipulated by treaties
r to the war, or ſuffers that power to ſeize hem. The neutral government cannot then in if the other belligerent power will enjoy ages which its enemy enjoys, or, if it ſeizes m; otherwiſe that neutral government would
, with reſpect to it, from the line of neu-and would become its enemy.
e underſigned Miniſter Plenipotentiary thinks leſs further to develope theſe principles. He not doubt that the Secretary of State feels all force, and that the government of the United will maintain from all violation a neutrality

Mr. FENNO,

You may be aſſured that the following is from the FOUNTAIN HEAD of Democracy. It may juſtly be called

A BAIT FOR GUDGEONS.

[To be ſaid or ſung.]

FREEMEN OF PENNSYLVANIA,

Take caution. The ariſtocrats of our country are endeavoring to deceive you with the name of Waſhington. They preſume to call theirs "Waſhington ticket." Beware fellow-citizens of the Waſhington ticket, it is intended to ſupport the election of the monarchiſt ADAMS, and begins with the name of Iſrael Wheelen.

OUR REPUBLICAN ticket begins with the name of Thomas M'Kean, and is intended to ſupport the election of the REPUBLICAN JEFFERSON. Believe us, fellow-citizens, that your Preſident Waſhington loves a republican and hates a monarchiſt. He therefore wiſhes that the republican Jefferſon may be his ſucceſſor.

Freemen of Pennſylvania
Take caution—or you'll rue the day
Th' ariſtocrats you may believe us
Are now endeavoring to deceive us
With the name of Waſhington
To make their ticket freely run
With moſt conſummate impudence
To which we have the ſole pretence
Preſume to call it by a name
'Tis our's by patent to deſame.
Then fellow-citizens beware,
This ticket is a cunning ſnare;
It is intended to ſupport
That friend of monarchs and a court—
John Adams they deſign ſhall ſteal in
By the name of Iſrael Whelen.
Our ticket is republican,
And this the compaſs of our plan—
Remember on it firſt is ſeen
The worthy name of T. M'Kean;
And to ſupport it is intended,
A name which freedom has defended;
So pure a democratic ſon,
God ne'er before made ſuch a one.
Believe us, fellow-citizens,
(We never lie with tongues or pens)
Your Waſhington—the truth we ſtate
Loves what we love—hates we hate;
Republicans and monarchiſts,
The firſt adores—the laſt deteſts—
Whene'er the helm he quits, he wiſhes
That we may ſhare the loaves and fiſhes;
That Jefferſon the great proſeſſor,
May be by us made his ſucceſſor.

ong years the ſland'rous peal has rung orth to ſouth, on every demo's tongue,
, they curs'd him in their drunken dreams;
, the preſs groan'd with their lying themes—
ow—to crown the whole, they'd blaſt his fame, king their deſigns and his, the ſame.

aſt of a letter from Hagar's town, (Maryland,) dated 21ſt October, 1796.

General Heiſter has been here twice within few weeks, and appears to have taken very mon pains with ſome of our citizens, to pre- them againſt Mr. Adams, to whom they were uſly favourable; and what renders it more table, are the means which he has uſed on caſion, conſidering that he is not an inhabi- this ſtate, and of courſe an intruder at our s; this is alſo the more barefaced, as he and ily have lately been completely defeated in wn diſtrict. It is only ſince the general's vi- we have had the pleaſure of ſeeing ſeveral lls, denouncing John Adams as a monarchiſt ying up the patriotic Jefferſon. The general, extreme affection for this diſtrict, has furniſh- e of our citizens with ſome ſelect and choice s from that gentleman's book, merely to ſave od farmers the labor of reading ſo volumi- work, which, were they to do, would pro- convey to them an opinion of that writer, ifferent from that which the general wiſhes cate."

motion it was reſolved, that the following to the citizens of Pennſylvania, be ſigned hairman and publiſhed.

llow-Citizens, period when the peculiar ſituation of our calls for no common ſhare of wiſdom, pa- and firmneſs in the chief magiſtrate of the United States, are we ſummoned to the choice of electors of a Preſident and Vice-Preſident, and on the prudence of that choice, will in a great meaſure depend our future peace and happineſs. Whilſt the deſolating ſword of War is deſtroying the faireſt countries in Europe—America is kept in peace. The wiſe and prudent ſyſtem of policy, adopted by our preſent adminiſtration, diſpelled the clouds which for a while darkened our political horiſon, and ſecured to our country proſperity and happineſs.

We are now to determine, whether, approving of the meaſures adopted by George Waſhington, and ſenſible of the bleſſings they have conferred on our country, we will chooſe electors who have uniformly evinced an approbation of his conduct, and may therefore be expected to give their ſuffrages in favor of men who will probably continue the ſame ſyſtem of wiſe and patriotic policy.—If ſuch be our determination, the perſons now recommended will naturally become the objects of our choice. To the prudence of thoſe republican citizens, ſincerely attached to our national government, we may ſafely entruſt the power of making appointments ſo important and intereſting.

With no deſire of dictating to our fellow-citizens, and with no intereſt but what is common to all, do we addreſs you. The happineſs of our country is involved in the choice that ſhall be made, and we therefore ſolicit your warmeſt exertions in ſupport of characters whoſe ſuffrages will enſure the peace and proſperity of the United States.

For the GAZETTE of the UNITED STATES.

M. FENNO,

A ſcurrilous writer in your Gazette of Tueſday evening laſt, under the ſignature of Phocion, aſſerts as follows.

"We are informed by the Newſpapers that Randolph has been to viſit Mr. Jefferſon, and has announced his determination to ſerve if elected Preſident; he has not yet announced his own determination to return to his former Secretaryſhip, if his friend ſhould be Preſident: but his activity in canvaſſing for him, leaves no room for doubt as to his wiſhes and expectations: it is apprehended, however, by ſome of the friends of both theſe characters, that a late legal call on one of them, for the immediate ſettlement of ſome old accounts and balances, will prove highly injurious to both."

The baſeneſs of Phocion's inſinuation, Mr. Fenno, as contained in the above paragraph, will be beſt expoſed by publiſhing Mr. Jefferſon's ſettlement of his public accounts as Secretary of State, made at the Treaſury of the United States, the 30th of December, 1793, being the day before he retired from the public ſervice; for which purpoſe I ſend you an authentic copy of that ſettlement, certified by Mr. Nourſe, Regiſter of the Treaſury, ſhewiag that the balance of 4786 dollars, 67 cents, then ſtated to be due from Mr. Jefferſon, was on the ſaid 30th of December 1793, paid into the Bank of the United States by Mr. Jefferſon, and paſſed to the credit of the Department of State with the bank.

☞NOTICE.

Philadelphia, October 31.

From a London Paper of September 19.

It is rather ſtrange that Buonaparte ſhould not have taken the trouble to inform the Directory of ſo important and ſignal a victory as that announced in Garrau's letter; nor is it leſs ſingular, that neither the General of Diviſion who acquainted Garrau with thoſe brilliant exploits, nor the place ſhould have been named, from whence he gave this momentous information.

ELECTIONEERING FALSEHOOD.

In a handbill publiſhed this morning, ſigned John Barker, chairman, there is this aſſertion, that Mr. Adams "avowed, that the government ought to have the authority of changing the conſtitution." This is founded on an extract ſaid to be taken from an anſwer to Paine's Rights of Man, under the ſignature of Publicola, publiſhed two or three years ago in the newſpapers. It is the truth, that Mr. Adams neither wrote nor dictated a ſentence of the publication under the ſignature of Publicola; nor did he ever ſee it until it was in print.

INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS.

The canals and locks on the Connecticut advance ravidly, and great quantities of produce are daily floating in them.

Blodget's canal, ſo called, at Amoſkiege falls, in the ſtate of New-Hampſhire, opens the 18th inſt. which is, as we hear, the day that Eſſex canal, at Patucket falls, opens, Blodget's canal was ſo near being completed thirty days ago, that fifty tons of timber paſſed through it. This great and arduous piece of work, cutting through large rocks, making dams and locks of near a mile in length, gradually ſinking fifty feet, has been performed in two years and a half, under the direction and at the expence of Samuel Blodget, eſq. of Haverhill, who is the ſole proprietor thereof.

The aqueduct in our vicinity is proſecuting with vigour.

BY THIS DAY's MAILS.

NEW-YORK, October 29.

Extract of a letter from a reſpectable houſe in Amſterdam, to their correſpondents in this city, dated September 19, 1796.

The news of the day is, that the KING of PRUSSIA had declared WAR againſt the EMPEROR of GERMANY—that his troops are marching—and that likely the ports of Hamburgh and Embden will be ſhut againſt Britiſh veſſels, to oblige that court to enter into terms of PEACE.—How far the news is certain, we cannot ſay—but we are certainly on the eve o[illegible] f Peace does not take place ſoon, War is likely to rage with redoubled animoſity.

From the Morning Chronicle.

LONDON, September 19.

A Courier from Paris has been expected ſince Friday laſt at the houſe of Count Wedel Yarlſberg, the Daniſh Miniſter, who, as we have already ſtated, has ſent to the executive directory for a paſſport for an Engliſh Envoy to go to Paris. The Courier was not returned at 10 o'clock laſt night, nor has any paſſport been received. It is neceſſary to give the publie this information.

It is very generally believed that a treaty has been lately entered into between France and Pruſſia, in which the port of Hamburgh is ceded to his majeſty.

There is ſome mention made in private letters from Hamburgh, of the King of Pruſſia and the Empreſs of Ruſſia, not being on the beſt footing.

BOSTON, October 20.

IMPORTANT

Extract of a letter from a reſpectable mercantile houſe in Cadiz, to a correſpondent here, Auguſt 20.

"The country grain has already got up from 50 R. to 64 a 66 per faneg. and as the winter approaches muſt go much higher; we have not therefore a doubt, but good American wheat, particularly the white ſort, will readily ſell for R. 60 per faneg, or upwards, during the winter: and what contributes eventually to an advance on that article, is, the very few ſupplies that can be expected from Barbary, owing to the diſſentions in that country, and all foreign navigation being prohibited to moſt of thoſe ports. Five fanegs are equal to 8 buſhels, and 20 Re make one Mexican dollar of your currency. We have had lately ſome importations of flour from England and France, which ſold at ſundry prices, from 17 to 20 dollars per bbl. of Spain, on board. During the preſent troubles, as beſides the embarraſſments of the court of Barbary, already alluded to, our ſupplies from Sicily will be totally intercepted by the Engliſh fleet in the Mediterranean, who detain all veſſels going to or ſailing from the ports of Italy, ſince they have got into the poſſeſſion of the French. Some ſmall parcels of rice, lately imported here, have ſold at 3 dls. per quintal, on board; but this price we conſider two high to be ſupported, unleſs we ſhould again be unfortunately involved in a war with England, of which there are actually very ſtrong apprehenſions; ſuch an event would at once cauſe an advance on all your products here, and in none more than in fiſh. The actual price of ſlaves is 140 to 1200 on board, and bees-wax, at 72 per quint. beef and pork would anſwer here, in caſe of a war with England."

STOP THE THIEVES!!!

LAST Wednesday Evening, October 19, between the hours of 7 and 10 o'clock, the bed room of Mr. Ricketts in O'Eller's hotel was entered, either by means of false keys, or at the window, by some villain or villains, who must have been acquainted with the situation of the house (as the door was found locked after they had committed the theft) who took away from amongst several trunks, ONE which contained a valuable part of Mr. Rickett's property, but of which he is not yet able to ascertain the contents particularly. After bringing the said trunk away, and emptying it of upwards of a thousand dollars in cash and bank notes, the villains left it behind the circus, during the time that the performances of the evening were going forward.

It is earnestly requested, that all tavern-keepers on the stage roads, and the ferry houses, as well as all civil officers, may be watchful in securing suspicious persons, who may have a redundance of cash, which their appearance would by no means bespeak them to be possessed of.

One Hundred Dollars Reward

Will be given for securing the thief or thieves, and a further reward for securing them with the property.
